

PRESS RELEASE

Wigwam® Holidays Nominated for National Award!

For Immediate Release

Thursday 5th October 2017

Wigwam® Holidays, the UK's number one glamping accommodation provider, has been nominated for a prestigious national award!

The fourth annual Landlove Magazine Awards informed Wigwam® Holidays that the glamping accommodation provider has been put forward for the Britain's Favourite Getaway category.

The nominations are featured in November's edition of this superb glossy monthly, after which readers can vote for the various nominations, including a wide range of categories such as Britain's Favourite Seaside Town and Britain's Favourite Day Out.

Charles Gulland, Managing Director of Wigwam® Holidays, said: "We are delighted to receive this nomination, which is a wonderful surprise!"

"We have over 80 sites nationwide and our mantra has always been great holidays in the great outdoors. Handmade timber cabins in some of the UK's most spectacular locations, affordable and sustainable – that's our ethos. Our glamping sites are favourites with families and really work in harmony with the natural landscape.

"We would very much like to thank the person or organisation responsible for putting us forward, we couldn't be happier at being part of such prestigious awards."

You can vote for Wigwam® Holidays by:

Purchasing the November 2017 edition of Landlove, then filling in the voting form on page 29 then sending the completed form to Landlove, Hubert Burda Media Ltd, The Tower, Phoenix Square, Colchester, Essex, CO4 9HU.
